Hope Calhoun, Partner, Dunay, Miskel & Backman, LLP
Board Member

Hope Calhoun is one of the most recognized legal professionals in the practice of Land Use and Zoning in the greater South Florida area.

Ms. Calhoun is a partner in the firm's Land Use & Zoning practice group. Ms. Calhoun graduated from the University of Florida College of Law and has more than 20 years of local government and land use experience. As a partner in the firm's Land Use and Zoning practice group, Ms. Calhoun represents property owners, developers and local governments in all aspects of the development approval process. These approvals require working with federal, state and local government agencies. Ms. Calhoun has represented clients on a variety of matters including annexations, development applications, zoning code amendments, comprehensive land use plan amendments, and platting. Ms. Calhoun's experience as a former assistant city attorney, coupled with her private practice experience provide her with a depth of knowledge and experience that allows her to provide her clients with the advice needed to successfully develop throughout Dade, Broward, and Palm Beach counties.

As a resident of Broward County, Ms. Calhoun has served on the Board of many local charities, including the Miramar Cultural Center, the Susan B. Anthony Recovery Center, and the Fort Lauderdale Chamber of Commerce. Ms. Calhoun is an active member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated, Board Member of the Heart Gallery of Broward County, and Committee Member with Habitat for Humanity. A few of her local recognitions include one of the 100 Outstanding Women of Broward County, 2010, one of South Florida's Top Rated Lawyers, 2012, and as an Attorney on the Rise, 2014 by the South Florida Legal Guide.
