

AMPS ENTREPRENEURSHIP
LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

Sabrina F. Salters, Vice President of Operations,
AMPS Entrepreneurship and Leadership Institute, Inc.

Sabrina F. Salters is an experienced Chief Operating Officer with a successful and storied history of working within Non-profit Organizations and Management. Mrs. Salters is skilled in budgeting, operations management, coaching, sales and entrepreneurship. She is also well versed in all aspects of business development.

During her career, Sabrina F. Salters has built a reputation emphasizing organizational excellence, innovation, strategic thinking and operating within the highest levels of integrity, reflected in her deep, passionate commitment. Previously, Sabrina was a Director of Transportation – developing Donation Centers and Distribution Centers for Goodwill of North Georgia, accountable for the organization’s revenue, profit and logistics.

Sabrina has volunteered with various organizations, including the Georgia public school systems, parent-teacher associations (PTA) and Junior Achievement BizTown. She has also served the NAACP as the youth coordinator as well as with Harriett’s Daughters on the Executive Board serving as treasurer. Mrs. Salters has recently retired from corporate leadership to become an educator and influencer in young lives. Mrs. Salters is a graduate of Keiser University. She is currently enrolled as a full-time student at Clayton State University pursuing a degree in elementary education.

Sabrina is a wife, mother, grandmother, student and contributor in her community.
